

AVA REGION I PROUDLY PRESENTS

“VAULTING IN VEGAS II”

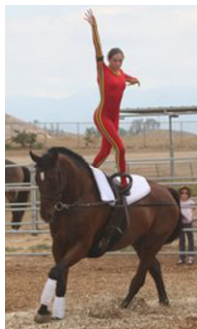

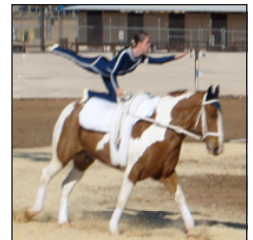

Yes, ladies, gentlemen, and vaulters of all ages, vaulting in Las Vegas is back for a second year.

Our first competition held in Nov of 2008 was a great success. It was held at Horseman’s Park, a fully equipped equestrian center that seems designed to hold great vaulting competitions and the fact that it is, just minutes from the Las Vegas Strip doesn’t hurt either.

We had 9 vaulting clubs from all over the West come together for this first competition. Needless to say there was no shortage of standing tall stands, flying high scissors, or fantastic full flanks. There were also a lot of first time competition jitters from many of the newer vaulters who had never performed in front of a judge or competed. One of the highlights of the two day event was the Gambler’s choice program. Where vaulters get paired up with vaulters from other clubs to create a routine that will be performed and judged on the barrel later in the day.

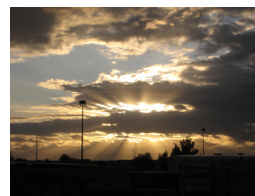

Mark these dates for this year’s “Vaulting in Vegas II” on Saturday and Sunday, November 7 and 8. AVA class competition will be held on Saturday starting at 1:00 pm and USEF class completion will be held on Sunday starting at 9:00 am. On Saturday, lunch and dinner will be available for purchase. Yes dinner, we will be vaulting under the lights on Saturday. Sunday, lunch will again be available for purchase.

We are working to make this a premier showcase of vaulting talent and would be very happy to have you and your club join us in November.

Sincerely,

All the members of AVA Region 1

Enjoy a Vegas Sunset
